

Note from the Principal

Good Afternoon,

On Wednesday morning I found a little bouquet of purple wildflowers on my desk that was held together by the tiniest rubberband. Unbeknownst to Cassie Le, 4th grader who made the arrangement, this was the day that many staff members wore orange and purple to honor our third-grade friend. After I attached the flowers to my purple ribbon, I went straight up to Cassie's classroom to thank her. She had no idea that purple was such a meaningful color on this given day and she had no idea how happy she would make me. I wore her flowers all day long and I shared with many people how this random act of kindness had such a big impact.

Have a nice weekend,
Dr. Foley
